2006 Class History
as told by Elizabeth Mominee

The Class of 2006 arrived in the fall of 2002, entering Southbridge High as the new reshman class. Thrilled and apprehensive, we were determined to make the next four ears of our education the most exciting experience of our lives thus far. Our first class lections were held in the fall and we elected Jacob Lazo as President, Joanaliz Eliza as ice-President, and Christina Kamizirides as Treasurer, with Mr. Festa and Mrs. Bussiere as ur class advisors. Our first official school business as a unified class was the Thanksgiv- g Day game rally, and the theme for the rally was "Dancin' Through the Decades." The reshman skit and poster were based on the musical "Hair," to represent the 1960's. was an abominably bad skit, lasting long past our time limit and mostly comprised of errible dance numbers. It was at this moment we resolved never to create such a poor kit again, and if we were lucky, to forget it completely. It was a long year spent easing to high school life, but finally spring had sprung, and brought with it our class elections or the next school year. Brian Gullekson, with his irresistible campaign slogan of "BJG for 003!" was elected the new class President, while Joanaliz Eliza was re-elected as Vice- resident, Christina Kamizirides became the class Treasurer for a second term, and Carly ion became the Secretary.

We had made it through that first frightening year, now we really felt like high school tudents! We had some experience under our belts and now and new group of freshmen ad arrived to sit on the bottom rung of the ladder. The new year had ushered in Mr. homo as a new class advisor, along with Mr. Festa. As soon as we returned to school as ophomores, a month late as a result of a large-scale mold issue that plagued the build- g, the big rally was quick in approaching. This year was an island castaway theme. laving already experienced the unpleasantness of a freshman skit, our class' skit commit- ee worked hard to write a better one, and ultimately, failed. The idea behind the skit as lost in translation, and within a few minutes of being acted out, it soon developed to a situation even worse than our freshman skit! It was embarassing to watch, but we emedied the shame with more promises of better skits in the years to come. The next ew monhs ushered in the nightmare of MCAS, but we were well prepared for it by Ir. Yacavace, after many viewings of the film "Stand and Deliver" and the "Career Day" ICAS rally. Not long after all that testing, there we were at class elections once more. or our upcoming junior year, we elected Richard LeBlanc as President, Jenna Kaitbenski s Vice-President, Christina Kamizirides as Treasurer, and Carly Dion as Secretary.

The next school year rolled around, and our class moved up another rung on the dder, we had finally become upperclassmen. We tried to focus all of our energy on our kit for the rally. The theme was "Welcome to the Jungle" and we thought we had the erfect idea for our skit and poster.

Unfortunately, and incident occured which barred us from holding the rally and it seemed as if our only good skit idea had gone to waste. it seemed as if school spirit had been splashed by a bucket of cold water, but especially for our class and the senior class. Our moods refused to improve as we neared the prom-planning season and realizing that our class had become one of the poorest in Southbridge High history, we knew we would have a difficult time planning such a large event. With a helping hand from Jeanelle Altiery and Jacqueline Alvarado, we managed to pull off a Cinderella theme without any major glitches. Our elections were held again in the spring, and Jeanelle Altiery was chosen to be our last class President, Jacqueline Alvarado was elected Vice-President, yours truly was elected Secretary, and Adam Noga was elected Treasurer in a landslide write-in victory. We could see our last year approaching, but some of us were less excited than others. Major budget cuts were leaving us with a much smaller teaching staff, eliminating some elective options, and for the first time in 45 years, juniors and seniors would be going without physical education.

Coming back for our senior year of high school, individual members of the class soon became busy with plans for college and employment beyond high school. No one wanted to pay any attention to the negative changes that had occured during the spring and summer, though they drastically affected our class. Our lives were changing fast, and we had switched advisors once again; now our class advisors were Mr. Thomo and Mr. Rucki. However, we were not too busy to be distracted from the Safari-themed rally. We still had all of our skit plans from the jungle theme, and we decided to use them again as we considered it to be one of the best skits ever. Whether it was a result of senior privileg or actual hard work, we had finally won the skit contest! Winning the skit contest had become one of our crowning acheivements at Southbridge High, and we felt as if we had gained back some measure of school spirit. We attended semi-formals, sports events and the beautiful Arabian Nights prom planned by the current junior class. Despite all the bumps in the road on our way to senior year, we had made it all in one piece and are now able to look back and know this journey has been long and arduous, but we had fu and learned our lessons.

Here ends the history of the Class of 2006 at Southbridge High, but not forever. While our memory will remain like another brick in these aged walls long after we're gone, we still have more growing to do, more education to seek, and more goals to accomplish. It has been a difficult ath to walk these last four years, but no one can say we are less wise or matured as a result. We have finally made it to the end of one great odyssey, and now we prepare for the next.

Congratulations, Seniors!

19.3 million barrels...

that's how much oil we can save in one year when we recycle aluminum cans

That's more than 384 million gallons of gasoline. Don't think it's your problem? Look at the price on the gas pump, then look at that recyclable can again. You can be part of the solution...and we're here to help.

Our job...everyone's responsibility.

A Song
A Dedication to TJ

see little hands and little feet
And little arms and legs
see little eyes and little ears
And hear the cries of life
l hold you so close
So close to my heart
are with the world
A child, a new life

I'm lying there and holding you look up to the stars
I asked Him for the Gift of Faith
To help you through your life
I asked Him for Guidance
And I asked Him for Strength
I then I reached out to Thank Him
my dream, my new child

v the time has come to spread your wings
And learn to fly your way
before you go I want you to know
How proud I am of you each day been Blessed with your laughter
ve been Blessed with your smile
I then I asked Him to guide you
As you walk your way through life

A child of love, who's Blessed from Above
A life full of laughter a life full of hope
A child of love a Gift from Above
I cherish each moment
And love you, with all my heart

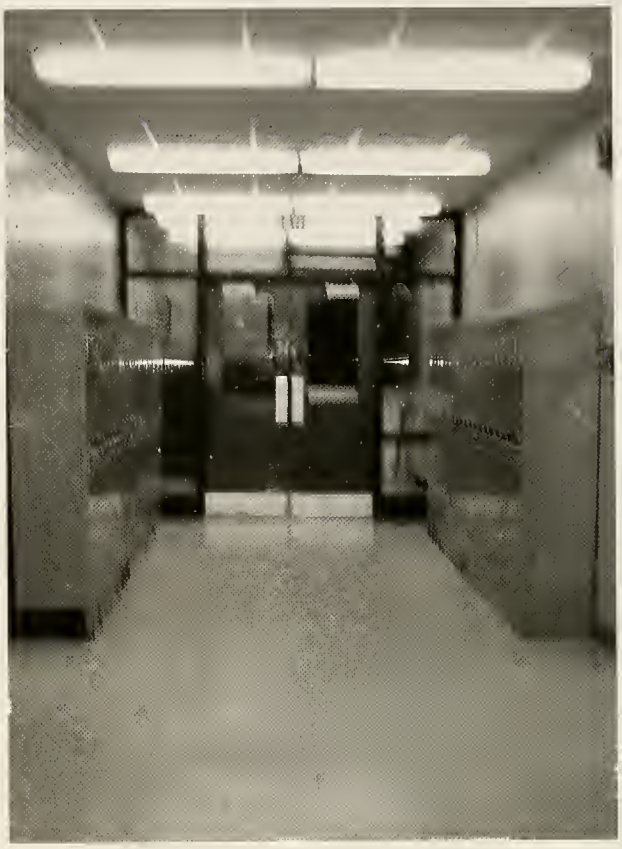
Congratulations Seniors of '06!

From the Yearbook Staff

In My Life by John Lennon & Paul McCartney



There are places I'll remember all my life though some have changed. Some forever not for better, Some have gone and some remain. All these places had their moments with lovers and friends I still can recall. Some are dead and some are living, in my life I've loved them all.

But of all these friends and lovers there is no one compares with you. And these mem'ries lose their meaning when I think of love as something new, though I know I'll never lose affection for people and things that went before. I know I'll often think about them, In my life I'll love you more. Though I know I'll never lose affection for people and things that went before I know I'll often stop and think about them, In my life I'll love you more. In my life I'll love you more.

2005-2006

Best of luck in all the years to follow!

Hurricanes ravage the Gulf Coast region in the fall of 2005, posing an unprecedented test of the United States federal emergency response efforts. Hundreds of lives are lost and thousands are left homeless in the wake of Category 4 Hurricane Katrina, followed by Rita and Wilma. The tragedy spurs contributions of money, talents, homes, food and more in an attempt to raise spirits and rebuild the area.

RISING FROM THE STORMS

August

25 Hurricane Katrina strikes Florida.

28 Mandatory evacuation of both New Orleans and Mississippi is ordered as Katrina becomes a Category 5 storm in the Gulf of Mexico.

29 Downgraded to a Category 4 storm, Katrina hits land. 1.3 million homes and businesses lose electricity in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. 30 levees are breeched, flooding New Orleans and leaving 100,000 people stranded. After slow government response, civil unrest and looting begins.

31 President Bush surveys the damage.

September

1 30,000 National Guard troops are deployed. Gas prices spike to as high as $5 per gallon.

2 President Bush visits Louisiana and signs a $10.5 billion relief bill. Nearly 154,000 evacuees arrive in Texas.

4 The New Orleans Superdome is evacuated.

6 President Bush and Congress pledge to investigate the flawed disaster response.

9 Government-issued debit cards are distributed to evacuees. The program fails and is ended days later.

12 Michael Brown, head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, resigns. Flooding is down to 50 percent in New Orleans.

14 New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin announces a phased repopulation plan.

15 New Orleans begins to reopen. Katrina is named the most destructive hurricane in U.S. history.

20 Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco declares a state of emergency as Hurricane Rita strengthens off the coast.

22 Rita hits the Louisiana coast and heads for Texas.

23 Thousands evacuate eastern Texas and the 9th Ward of New Orleans floods once again after levees are overrun.

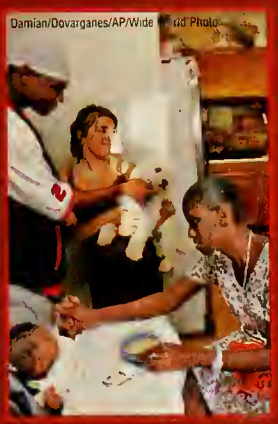
October

24 Hurricane Wilma hits southwest Florida.

Thousands of Louisiana evacuees receive shelter and medical care in the Astrodome in Houston, Texas.

Louisiana Governor Kathleen Blanco, President Bush and New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin survey the damage in New Orleans.

Many animals left behind during evacuation are rescued and given shelter or reunited with their owners.



Homes across the country are opened to families left homeless in the wake of Hurricane Katrina.

Thousands of volunteers help Habitat for Humanity rebuild homes in Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama.

Three months after Katrina strikes, the first New Orleans public school reopens on November 28.
